More than 1 hour Makes about 20 bars Share Share on facebook Share on twitter Share on pinterest Share on whatsapp Share on email Ingredients:

- $2\frac{1}{2}$ cups (290g) rolled oats
- 1 packet (100g) cashew nuts, toasted and chopped
- 1 packet (100g) dried mango strips, chopped
- 1 packet (100g) dried cranberries
- $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp (3ml) each ground cinnamon and nutmeg
- ¼ cup (60ml) coconut oil
- ¼ cup (60ml) honey
- 2 large bananas, mashed
- 1 egg, whisked

Method

- 1. Preheat oven to 160°C.
- 2. Line a 20cm square baking tray with baking paper, leaving a 2cm overhang.
- 3. Mix oats, nuts, dried fruit and spices in a large bowl.
- 4. Make a well in the centre.
- 5. Melt coconut oil and honey in a microwave-safe bowl on medium heat for 1 minute.
- 6. Cool for a few minutes.
- 7. Add melted mixture, banana and egg to the well and mix until combined.
- 8. Spread onto baking tray and bake for 45 minutes until firm to the touch.
- 9. Cool slightly and use a sharp knife to mark slices with deep indentations.
- 10. Turn onto a rack and cool.
- 11. Slice using indentations and store in an airtight container.

Browse more healthy recipes here.