45 minutes (plus chilling time) Makes about 40-45 biscuits Share with friends Share on facebook Share on twitter Share on whitter Share on whatsapp Share on email Ingredients:

- 1 ¹/₅ cups (300g) butter, at room temperature
- 1 cup (130g) icing sugar
- 2 large eggs
- 1 tsp (5ml) vanilla paste or vanilla essence
- 3 cups (450g) cake flour
- 2 slabs (200g) dark chocolate, 1 slab chopped
- 1 packet (100g) hazelnuts or almonds, toasted and chopped
- ¹/₂ cup (100g) castor sugar, for sprinkling (optional)

Method

- 1. Cream butter and icing sugar together with an electric mixer until light and creamy.
- 2. Add eggs, one at a time, mixing until fully incorporated before adding the next one.
- 3. Add vanilla paste or essence and mix well.
- 4. Add flour, chopped chocolate and nuts and mix to create a solid dough (take care not to overmix).
- 5. Divide dough into two equal portions.
- Place a sheet of baking paper on a work surface and roll each portion of dough into a 30cm long log (it should be 4-5cm in diameter).
- 7. Wrap in clingfilm and chill in the fridge for a few hours or overnight (freeze logs if not baking immediately and use as needed).
- 8. Preheat oven to 180°C.
- 9. Line two baking trays with baking paper.
- 10. Slice logs into 7-8mm thick discs
- 11. Place biscuits on prepared baking trays, leaving a 2cm gap between each one.
- 12. Bake for 6 minutes, then rotate baking trays and bake for a further 6 minutes until golden around the edges and firm in the centre.

- 13. Sprinkle with castor sugar, if you like, and cool on a wire rack.
- 14. Melt the remaining slab of chocolate over a double boiler and stir until smooth (making sure the bowl doesn't touch the water or the chocolate will burn).
- 15. Place biscuits on a wire rack.
- 16. Drizzle chocolate over the biscuits in swirls and allow to set.
- 17. Serve immediately or store unglazed biscuits in an airtight container for 1-2 weeks.
